

NLnet foundation financially supports organizations and people that contribute to an open information society. It funds software, events, educational activities --and more. The procedure is fast and open to anyone. The articles of association for the NLnet foundation state: "to promote the exchange of electronic information and all that is related or beneficial to that purpose".

NLnet believes in open standards and open source. Here one can find information on current projects